A pro-active accountant is vital in this climate

We believe your accountant should actively help your business to succeed and should provide so much more than just an annual compliance exercise.

What makes us different?

- We alert clients instantly to any tax changes that could save their business money.
- We are available to meet clients in the evenings or weekend, ensuring their time during the working week can be dedicated to growing their business.
- We host regular seminars on accounting and tax topics to ensure clients understand fully their finances and tax position.
- We host a monthly networking event which gives an opportunity for like-minded clients to meet and do business with each other.
- We actively refer clients to each other, helping them win new business and grow.
- We ensure a prompt response to all e-mails and telephone calls.

At Alan James & Co every client is treated with the same value and importance. We are large enough to make a difference but small enough to really care.
