Landmark office solutions with panoramic views over the historic town of Cheltenham.

Acknowledged as one of the most prestigious addresses in Gloucestershire, Eagle Tower rises above the fashionable Montpellier district and looks out over Regency Cheltenham and the Cotswolds beyond. The office complex offers choices to suit all business needs, containing over 100,000 sq ft of office accommodation, including a 14 storey tower.

The management team has devised a unique strategy with flexible terms giving businesses the opportunity to benefit from the sort of quality office space previously only available to large corporations.

We have acted as auditors of the company which owns and manages this complex since 2007.

"I have 21 years experience of being audited as the book-keeper for a number of limited companies.

What I want from my auditors are the rare and desirable characteristics of exemplary good manners, a profound understanding of accounts and an open, helpful and cooperative attitude towards errors or incomplete information. All of this driven along by unfailing good humour and energy.

I routinely find this ideal in the auditors supplied by Alan James & Co. The audit is thus so painless that you can even end up going to the movies with the auditor after work."

Martin Green, Accountant. May 2009.
